Jennifer Carpenter stars in espionage thriller 'The Enemy Within'

By Kyla Brewer
TV Media

With dragons patrolling the skies and zombies around every corner on cable, network television has some serious competition these days. However, one network is stepping up its game with an espionage thriller worthy of a closer look.

Jennifer Carpenter ("Dexter") stars as Erica Shepherd, a brilliant codebreaker and former CIA operative who was convicted of treason after selling out four of her fellow agents to save her daughter in "The Enemy Within," airing Monday, May 13, on NBC. Three years after she was sent to a supermax prison, Shepherd was recruited by FBI Agent Will Keaton (Morris Chestnut, "Rosewood") to help him track down the terrorist responsible for the death of his fiancée, one of the agents Shepherd betrayed.

The drama boasts an intensity often reserved for the big screen as the agents track a network of ruthless spies. Daring plot twists, emotionally charged drama and thrilling action sequences add to the show's appeal, promising to raise it above typical prime-time network fare. When Carpenter, best known for her role in the cable series "Dexter," was interviewed by Danielle Turchiano for variety.com in February, the actress explained that she hoped the show would elevate network television to the next level.

"I want to do the muscling of raising the bar for network television to feel like the complicated world of cable," Carpenter said.

Likewise, her co-star has had high praise for NBC's "The Enemy Within." In an April article on chicagotribune.com, series star Chestnut explained that the show was much more than a one-dimensional spy drama.

"The one thing about this show that I love is it's not just an FBI show or a CIA show," Chestnut said. "We're dealing with layers and layers of issues and emotions. And mine is working with this woman, knowing she cost my fiancée her life and I still don't have closure on that."

The show's combination of high-stakes action and intense drama requires serious acting chops and, luckily, its cast is more than capable. Carpenter first came to the attention of audiences as the title character in the supernatural thriller "The Exorcism of Emily Rose" (2005), which earned her an MTV Movie Award. She also starred in the zombie flick "Quarantine" (2008) before landing her most famous role as Debra Morgan in Showtime's "Dexter." She also appeared in the CBS dramas "The Good Wife" and "Limitless."

Chestnut got his big break in the Oscar-nominated film "Boyz n the Hood" (1991). He went on to appear in TV movies and series, including "Out All Night" and "C-16: FBI," and hit the silver screen again in "Under Siege 2: Dark Territory" (1995), "The Game Plan" (2007) and "The Best Man" (1999). The latter earned him an NAACP Image Award nomination. TV fans may also recognize him from his leading role in the Fox drama "Rosewood," which garnered him another NAACP Image Award nomination.

"The Enemy Within" also boasts a talented supporting cast. English actor Raza Jaffrey ("Code Black") portrays FBI interrogator Daniel Zain, Keaton's friend and confidant. TV aficionados may recognize Jaffrey from his roles in BBC One's "Spooks" (known as "MI-5" in the U.S.) and Season 4 of Showtime's "Homeland." Kelli Garner plays Kate Ryan, a technical analyst from the FBI's Cyber Division. Garner is known for her role as Faith Domergue in Martin Scorsese's "The Aviator" (2004), as well as roles in "Lars and the Real Girl" (2007) and "Horns" (2013).

Canadian model and actor Noah Mills has taken on the role of FBI agent and former Army Ranger Jason Bragg in "The Enemy Within." In addition to his work as a model, Mills has appeared in the television series "The Brave" and "2 Broke Girls." Cassandra Freeman ("Inside Man," 2006) rounds out "The Enemy Within's" regular cast as FBI Training Academy instructor Jacqueline Pettigrew. Freeman has recently had roles in the Netflix series "Luke Cage" and the FX hit "Atlanta."

Sunny teen flick 'Malibu Rescue' drops on Netflix

NEW ON NETFLIX:

"Malibu Rescue"

Summer's just around the corner, which makes this the perfect time for some light, beachy entertainment. This family-friendly flick streams Monday, May 13, and reunites young "School of Rock" co-stars Ricardo Hurtado and Breanna Yde as Tyler and Gina, two junior lifeguards from The Valley working at Malibu beach. They and their fellow lifeguards make up a scrappy gang of underdogs as they contend with the snooty local kids. The movie serves as an introduction for the eight-episode series set to launch next month, which will continue to follow the lively gang and their sunny hijinks after they've staked their claim on the beach.

WHAT'S NEW ON AMAZON PRIME:

"Fleabag" Season 2

This wonderfully witty British comedy-drama from the mind of Phoebe Waller-Bridge ("Crashing"), who also writes and stars, premiered way back in 2016, so the second season has been a long time coming. Waller-Bridge plays the charmingly named Fleabag, an angry, acerbic, sex-addicted thirtysomething living in London. The series has been extremely well received and has a number of awards under its belt, so fans will no doubt be disappointed to learn that this season will be its last. Season 2 is as awkward and dryly witty as ever, kicking off with an uncomfortable dinner with Fleabag's dysfunctional family to celebrate Dad's (Bill Paterson, "Sea of Souls") engagement to Godmother, played by Oscar winner Olivia Colman ("The Favourite," 2018). The full season streams Friday, May 17.

"Yardie" (2018)

Idris Elba ("Luther") directs this British crime drama based on the novel of the same name by Jamaican-born writer Victor Headley. Reggae abounds as the story follows Dennis Campbell (Aml Ameen, "Sense8"), who is hired by a Jamaican crime lord to deliver cocaine to British gangster Rico (Stephen Graham, "Snatch," 2000) in London. While there, Dennis learns that the man who killed his brother in a shooting years earlier is also in England, and he's torn between seeking revenge and carrying out the job he's there to do. You can watch it Wednesday, May 15.

HOLLYWOOD Q&A

By Adam Thomlison
TV Media

Q: Anna Kendrick seems to have come out of nowhere. Where did she start?

A: Anna Kendrick is as beloved by critics as she is by audiences, and so the best way to trace her career arc is actually through her awards trail.

For example, you can glean a lot about her future career from the fact that the first major nomination she received was for a Tony Award all the way back in 1998, when she was just 13. She received the best-featured-actress nod for her role in "High Society," the stage adaptation of the 1956 movie of the same name.

Shortly afterward she transitioned to indie films on the big screen, as can be seen by the fact that she was nominated for Independent Spirit Awards for the 2003 musical comedy "Camp," and then for the 2007 dramedy "Rocket Science."

You could say that her big break really came in 2009's "Up in the Air." You could say that because she was nominated for a stunning 48 awards for her supporting role as an arrogant young corporate downsizer who threatens star George Clooney's idyllic life of business travel.

She solidified her stardom that same year with a role in the long-running "Twilight" film series (though it was a relatively minor part, yielding only two award nominations — a small haul by Kendrick's standards).

LATE LAUGHS

Conan

During a campaign event in Iowa, South Bend Mayor Pete Buttegieg was heckled by an anti-gay protester. Buttegieg handled it like a pro, saying, "Settle down, Mr. Vice-President."

The Tonight Show With Jimmy Fallon

E.L. James, the woman who wrote "Fifty Shades of Grey," has just come out with her newest erotic novel. It's called "The Mister," and the story is actually about income inequality. Or as Bernie Sanders put it, "I've never been so turned on in my life!"

A science teacher in Japan was arrested for teaching his students how to make ecstasy. The teacher says he feels terrible … but also really, really good.

Carl's Jr. is testing a CBD-infused burger. So far it's working, 'cause customers eat the burger, walk outside, look up and say, "Sweet! Carl's Jr.!" and walk right back in.

The Late Late Show With James Corden

According to a report, men's beards actually contain more harmful germs and bacteria than dog fur. Men's beards are nastier than dog fur! On top of that, dogs don't make you try to listen to their Indie folk album.

[Tiger] Woods has had to overcome potentially career-ending injuries to make it back to championship form. And it just goes to show, it really does, that you can achieve anything with hard work, perseverance and a multimillion-dollar Nike sponsorship.

The makers of Chewy Chips Ahoy cookies recently issued a recall because of an unexpected solidified ingredient that could cause adverse health effects. Yeah, it turns out Chips Ahoy cookies aren't the health food you thought they were.

Late Night With Seth Meyers

The European Union today threatened to impose tariffs on $20 billion worth of imported U.S. goods, including ketchup, fish and tractors. Which coincidentally is also the title of Kid Rock's new album.
