New 'bawse' in town

Lilly Singh takes over late night

By Kyla Brewer
TV Media

Late-night talk shows have been a staple of television programming for decades, but a new host is about to shake things up with a fresh take on the tried-and-true format.

YouTube phenomenon Lilly Singh ("Fahrenheit 451," 2018) moves to TV as she hosts "A Little Late With Lilly Singh," premiering Monday, Sept. 16, on NBC. The new show features traditional late-night interviews, of course, but also pre-taped comedy sketches and segments featuring her signature brand of humor.

Singh announced the show on "The Tonight Show With Jimmy Fallon" back in March, and she was eager to share her ideas for the new late-night program.

"I'm so excited because I truly get to create a show from scratch," Singh said. "I get to make it inclusive, I get to create comedy segments and interview people and really create something that I believe in."

She went on to explain that "A Little Late With Lilly Singh" will be a little like her YouTube channel, IISuperwomanII, which has nearly 15 million subscribers. Featuring a mix of comedy segments, motivational messages and collaborations with some of her famous friends, her YouTube channel has taken the internet by storm, earning her numerous accolades, including Streamy Awards, two Teen Choice Awards and a People's Choice Award. She also has a vlog channel, created in 2011, where she chronicles her daily activities. In 2017, Forbes ranked Singh 10th on the magazine's list of the world's highest-paid YouTubers and named her the top influencer in the entertainment category.

For YouTube fans who may be concerned that she'll nix her beloved channel now that she's got a primo late-night gig, fear not. In a YouTube video announcing "A Little Late," Singh insisted: "I would not abandon my YouTube family."

The internet may have made her a star, but Singh is also an accomplished entertainer, having appeared on television and in movies, as well as in a number of music videos. She released a visual music piece on YouTube called "Voices" in 2016 and appeared in the music video for Maroon 5's "Girls Like You."

Her movie credits include "Dr. Cabbie" (2014), "Ice Age: Collision Course" (2016) and "Bad Moms" (2016). She guest starred as herself in an episode of Disney Channel's "Bizaardvark."

Lilly Singh, host of "A Little Late With Lilly Singh"

She became an author in 2017 when she released her book "How to be a Bawse: A Guide to Conquering Life," which became a No. 1 New York Times bestseller.

With all of these accomplishments under her belt, it's safe to say that Singh is a modern-day Renaissance woman. What's even more amazing is that she's done all of this by the time she turned 30, and she'll continue to break new ground in "A Little Late With Lilly Singh." When her new late-night show premieres, she'll be the first woman to host her own late-night TV show on one of America's "Big 4" networks: NBC, ABC, Fox and CBS. She's also the first openly bisexual woman of color to helm such a show in the U.S.

"A Little Late's" format may be different than other late-night shows, but that could be a good thing. While a lot of late-night talk shows focus on current events and politics, Singh's show is expected to be more personal, mining her own experiences for comedy, similar to the YouTube content that made her a star.

Not having to rely on the news of the day will allow the cast and crew to film all 96 episodes of the show's debut season this fall, an ambitious undertaking. Luckily, Singh no longer has to go it alone in making her comedy segments and coming up with content. She'll have a whole roster of talented writers and behind-the-scenes talents working with her on the NBC show.

"I'm thrilled to be collaborating with this all-star team of writers as we work to bring a new, authentic perspective to late night," Singh said in an official NBC news release announcing the premiere.

Quirky comedy series 'Between Two Ferns' gets film treatment on Netflix

WHATS NEW ON NETFLIX

"Between Two Ferns: The Movie" (2019)

Fans of the Funny or Die series "Between Two Ferns" will be excited to hear that Netflix has given the comedy series the movie treatment, and it premieres Friday, Sept. 20. The film is written by the show's original creators, Zach Galifianakis ("Baskets") and Scott Aukerman ("Comedy Bang! Bang!"), with Aukerman directing (as he did for many episodes of the series) and, of course, Galifianakis starring. For anyone not familiar, "Between Two Ferns" is a fictional talk show that features Galifianakis as he conducts extremely unprofessional and hilarious interviews with various celebrities. Guests range from stars like Bradley Cooper ("A Star is Born," 2018) and Steve Carell ("The Office") to political figures like former president Barack Obama and former presidential candidate Hillary Clinton. Galifianakis explained the film, saying, "We have several interviews. What we tried to do is build a storyline, not necessarily around the interviews, but around the cable access station where we've been shooting all these years." Galifianakis also declared that the new film will feature appearances by "celebrities you've heard of" — find out which celebrities he's talking about when the film lands on Netflix.

Zach Galifianakis stars in "Between Two Ferns: The Movie"

"Disenchantment" Season 1, Part 2

This popular animated adult comedy series returns to Netflix on Friday, Sept. 20, for Part 2 of Season 1. Coming from the mind of creators Josh Weinstein ("Futurama") and Matt Groening ("The Simpsons"), Part 1 brought us to the medieval world of Dreamland and introduced us to the rebellious, heavy-drinking Princess Bean (Abbi Jacobson, "Broad City"), her bright-eyed and naive companion, Elfo (Nat Faxon, "Blaze and the Monster Machines"), and her personal demon, Luci (Eric André, "Man Seeking Woman"). After running away from her own wedding, Princess Bean sets off on a series of misadventures with Elfo and Luci in an attempt to find her identity. Part 1 is already available on Netflix, so you have lots adventure to catch up on before the series picks back up after that epic midseason cliffhanger.

HOLLYWOOD Q&A

By Adam Thomlison
TV Media

Q: Has "Deep State" been canceled? And is Mark Strong no longer involved with the series?

A: "Deep State" has not been canceled, but Mark Strong has.

It's become something of a trend among prestige dramas to write out their seemingly unkillable main characters (see, for example, "True Detective," "Fargo" and, of course, "Game of Thrones"). Nonetheless, it still came as a surprise to fans when [slight spoiler alert] Mark Strong's character seemed to have been written off at the end of "Deep State" Season 1.

Strong was unquestionably the star of the show, and so many thought that the writers would find a way to bring him back in Season 2. But that season came and went without him.

His spot was filled by another critically beloved character actor, Walton Goggins, who played a very different character but brought the same gravitas and star power that Strong offered.

The second season finished in the summer, but there's been no word yet on a third. There's every reason to be hopeful, though. The producers still have time to make the decision before they blow any kind of deadline, and in fact there aren't any real deadlines, because the show's British.

LATE LAUGHS

Conan

A panel is celebrating the 90th anniversary of Popeye! Popeye should appeal to millennials since he's covered in tattoos and has a plant-based diet.

President Trump's former press secretary Sean Spicer has been cast in "Dancing with the Stars" — or, as the show is now called, "Dancing."

A Mexican court ruled that people can use cocaine legally. Now Mexico is worried about us coming over there.

The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon

Scientists have built a six-foot, 10-inch robot that can hit perfect three-pointers. Unfortunately, rival scientists built a six-foot, 11-inch robot that can say, "Not in my house!"

Two dentists in Virginia were caught giving free dental work to people who agreed to be their drug mules. Police got suspicious when they saw several meth heads who still had teeth.

Budweiser is making beer with marijuana. There's actually a name for beer that's infused with weed: Nyquil.

The Late Late Show with James Corden

A university in South Africa has created an alternative, more eco-friendly form of ice cream that is made out of — brace yourselves — maggots. Now, that sounds disgusting, but only because it's disgusting.

More than 50% of Americans have used swimming pools as an alternative to showering. I'm not American — don't look at me! This is on you guys. I'm not one of you! Swimming pools aren't for getting clean. A swimming pool has only two purposes: swimming and peeing.
